

The most important thing on my desk is a pack of electrolyte tablets. Hydration is key!

I also have travel souvenirs, a favorite crossword puzzle, a Lego F1 car, and a quote from a reviewer that always makes me smile: “This paper is a beneficial contribution to nonlinear filtering fields and deserves to be encouraged if it can accepted.” A family photo—also very important—is obscured by a cartoon drawing of a smiling balloon.